THE GALLERY

The Texas Regional Art Gallery was officially opened on 27 September 2000. The Texas Arts Council Inc are proud to manage the Gallery located in the Texas Cultural Centre, which is owned and maintained by the Goondiwindi Regional Council.

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Texas Regional Art Gallery volunteers play an important role and are vital to smooth and efficient day-to-day gallery operations. Currently volunteers assist with information, security, administration duties and exhibition installation.

A training program including lectures and workshops ensure professional handling of artworks. The Gallery always welcomes new volunteers, though all Gallery workers must be Texas Arts Council members. If you would like information, please ask one of our volunteers on your next visit to the Gallery.

Texas Regional Art Gallery 2019 Program

The Gallery has eight exhibitions scheduled for display in 2019.

COLOUR II MERV MORIARTY: IN THE FIELD

22 Jan – 1 Mar

The touring element of this exhibition comprises recent works by artist, art educator and founder of Flying Arts Alliance, Mervyn Moriarty.

Each gallery on the tour has a locally curated component showcasing works from artists in their community as well as pieces demonstrating Moriarty's legacy.

THE TRUTH ABOUT WOOL

5 Mar – 30 Mar

Photographer and wool masterclasser, Chantel McMaster describes herself as addicted to wool. Her photography tells the story of modern day wool, the people, the sheep and the lifestyle.

CLOSURE FOR RENOVATIONS

2 Apr – 15 Apr

GLIMPSES ON MY PAST

16 Apr – 24 May

Originally from Alice Springs, Inglewood artist and Arunta-Arabana woman Fay Lavender presents a collection of traditional aboriginal work plus contemporary landscapes and drawings.

BEACH TO BUSH

28 May – 5 July

Lizzie Connor's work focuses mainly on the natural world, taking the viewer to a place and prompting memories and experiences. Work is acrylic/mixed media on canvas and inks on paper.

TRAVELS IN ART

9 Jul – 16 Aug

A shared exhibition from Barbara and Neville Logan. Watercolourist Nev Logan's subject matter is mainly townscapes, street and harbour scenes. He draws on extensive travel to enrich his work. Bev Logan's work is a rather unique form of fabric collage using acrylic paints on cotton fabric.

THROUGH THE LENS

20 Aug – 27 Sept

Promoting photography as an art form. The sixth annual photographic competition and exhibition open to residents of Texas and surrounding areas.

TEXAS STATE SCHOOL

1 Oct – 8 Nov

Artworks from the Texas P-10 State School.

EXHIBITION: LOCAL ART

12 Nov – Until Start of 2020 Exhibition Schedule

An annual collection of works by local artists who reside within the Goondiwindi Regional Council area and/or a 100 km radius of Texas. All mediums accepted.
