

TOP THINGS TO DO IN INGLEWOOD

An aerial photograph showing a large, calm lake with a blue-green hue. In the foreground, a grassy area contains a campsite with several vehicles, including a white caravan, a red car, and a white van. There are also some small buildings and trees scattered throughout the landscape. The background shows distant hills under a clear sky.

FISHING

Fancy some freshwater fishing in a countryside environment? The Inglewood area including the Macintyre Brook (just a short stroll from the main street) and Lake Coolmunda are rated as one of the area's best 'sweet water' fishing spots with Golden Perch (Yellowbelly), Murray Cod, Silver Perch, Eel Tail Catfish (Jewfish), Boney Bream and Spangled Perch. If you need bait or fishing supplies, you can visit the local service station and the local hardware store Wilshire & Co sell fishing line and gear.

BIRD-WATCHING AND BUSH WALKING

Inglewood is an area diverse in habitat and home to a rich array of birds, with over 200 species identified. There is an abundance of birdlife around Inglewood, with some great walking tracks around Lake Coolmunda. Alternatively you can explore the Olive Grove walk in town at the Apex/Lions Park which is a leisurely stroll, and a great place for a BBQ or picnic.

INGLEWOOD HERITAGE CENTRE & AUSTRALIAN TOBACCO MUSEUM

Guests are always amazed at the comprehensive written and pictorial history of the Inglewood district when visiting this museum. Housed in the original Cobb & Co Building and showcasing 'The Squatter's Legacy'; 'The Golden Leaf' of the Tobacco industry; a 'Dam Good Idea'; and numerous historic relics there is plenty to explore. Combined with the recent addition of a scale replica tobacco barn, you will not be disappointed with what you will learn from this fantastic museum. Now open 7 days a week thanks to digital self check-ins and interactive guides.

Address: 3 Victoria Street, Inglewood

LADY OF THE LAKE - HOME AND GIFTS

Lady of the Lake is more than a store. It's a rich collection of bespoke bohemian fashion, jewellery, apothecary, homewares and art. All lovingly selected and curated with a distinctive style.
